2019 Intense year | Huge Changes 2020

Award Received 🏆

January was an eventful month. After being interviewed on Blog Talk Radio in two segments, I was noticed and selected as Top Energy Healer of the Year for 2019 by the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP).

El Paso Home Sold 🌵

On Feb 18, when an offer was accepted on our El Paso home, my husband and I moved to San Antonio so Dan could care for his parents who are both living at home on hospice care.

We moved into a small rental house, allowing us to take our time to look for a retirement home that gave us what we both wanted.

Then the Fire 🔥

On June 1 at 5pm our rental home caught fire. We were out back so no one was hurt. It was traumatic for me. While my husband and son lost little, much of my own belongs were lost. Fortunately we had rental insurance. I guess it was time for me to let go and get a fresh start.

Connie Reuschlein's Energy Healing Services are now conducted by Phone

It has been an adjustment for my clients and me to face the fact that I am no longer available for in-person consultations in the Borderlands of El Paso & Las Cruces. I really miss everyone!

🔑 During August of 2019, grief had settled in over the loss of my Borderland clients and my attempts to adjust to so much change. That period coincided with the 8:8 Lions Gate, a time when intense light frequencies surge thru our light-body and dormant DNA is awakened as we align to new ascension codes.

Now Settled Again

We found our dream home and closed on it five days after the fire. We moved in on July 1. The home is 17 miles south of Austin on a three acre wooded lot and features a wrap-around porch, a screened-in porch with jacuzzi, pole barn, and chicken coop.

* No chickens for the coop due to our bird chasing Dachshund!

 Once I had adjusted to the new energies and moved thru my grief, I again have manifested clients contacting me for sessions.

★ Place your attention and intention fully on what you feel ready to receive - desire to receive - and know you can receive. Make sure to LET GO of HOW it is to come. Then experience it as happening NOW with all of your senses. Feel gratitude always & notice what comes.

I feel so fortunate to have this gift of healing because when I perform my healing work I feel fulfilled and complete. I'm glad to say I have bounced back, feel good, and am looking forward to the new vibrations and changes of 2020.

 So you think "over the phone" is not the same?

Although you may wish for a face-to-face session, please understand that the Divine doesn't function under our preconceived notions of time and space. Our Light/Aura/Energy systems can be anywhere they intend to be even if our physical body stays put in one location.

Those who have had recent phone sessions with me realize the sessions are certainly as powerful (if not more so with the higher energies coming thru) as in-person consultations of the past.

♥ Our sweet, shy Bailey, a Whippet - Husky mix, passed away in San Antonio this April. I believe she was around 15 years old. When children saw her they would say, "Look at the Little Wolf!" Bailey was a gentle princess.

♥ I miss El Paso ♥

The house has a lovely screened in porch with hot tub.

 In November of 2019, I had eye surgery for cataracts. I had no idea how bad my vision had been until after the surgery. I then realized I had been seeing my world in shades of SEPIA! My new world view is so bright and colorful it appears surreal. My brain is still adjusting to the bright, beautiful colors surrounding me.

Note: Looking back on 2019, I realize how challenging it was for me to manifest my desires after the trauma of the house fire. I struggled thru the second half of the year and numerous physical problems cropped up due to the stresses I placed on myself. Below is a simplified formula for Manifesting:
 Clear Intention + Joyous Feelings (desires) + Belief (trust) + Gratitude = Desired Outcome
 In order for this formula to work, you must LET GO of the HOW it is to happen. The act of attempting to figure out a HOW will halt the desired outcome. The Universe works in much more surprising ways than we can imagine. You must believe so strongly in the outcome that you already feel/sense/know it is "here". The anticipated outcome will happen in an unexpected way. As we notice the unexpected happen time & time again, our perceptions automatically shift out of old belief patterns. Now we see potentials & possibilities!
